To Whom It May Concern:

Mr Akmal Shaikh date of birth 05 April 1956

Mr Akmal Shaikh was my registered patient with his family when he lived in London.

I do remember Mr Akmal Shaikh although it is several years since I last saw him.

Yesterday 27 December I saw the report on Sky News for the first time that Mr Akmal Shaikh has been detained by Chinese Court.

I read that Mr Akmal Shaikh has been charged with drug smuggling. In my experience of Mr Akmal Shaikh this is totally out of character of the patient I knew. As his doctor, I am concerned that Mr Akmal Shaikh has since progressive medical and mental conditions.

I immediately made contact with The British Foreign Office. I wish to assist Mr Akmal Shaikh in his medical and mental condition, if necessary in China.

Please do not hesitate to contact me. I certainly wish to help.

Yours faithfully,

Dr Martin Harris
